ELLIOT A. DEL BORGIO

Born in Port Chester, N.Y., Elliot Del Borgo holds a B.S. degree from the State University of New York, an Ed. M. degree from Temple University, and an M.M. degree from the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music, where he studied theory and composition with Vincent Persichetti and trumpet with Gilbert Johnson. In 1973 he was granted the doctoral equivalency by the State University of New York and was elected to membership in the American Bandmasters Association in 1993.

Mr. Del Borgo taught instrumental music in the Philadelphia Public Schools and was Professor of Music at the State University of New York, where he held teaching and administrative positions from 1966 to 1995. An award winning member of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP), he is a frequent consultant, clinician, lecturer and adjudicator in the United States and abroad. Mr. Del Borgo is an internationally known conductor of bands and orchestras.

In addition to his music for the 1980 Olympics in Lake Placid, he has published nearly 500 compositions for a variety of media. His music reflects the aesthetics of twentieth century musical ideals through its eclectic nature and vigorous harmonic and rhythmic style.

DR. TIMOTHY MAHR

A professor of music of St. Olaf College (Northfield, MN), Dr. Timothy Mahr conducts the St. Olaf Band, teaches courses in composition, music education, conducting and supervises instrumental music student teachers. He is the immediate Past President of the North Central Division of College Band Directors National Association and has served on the Board of Directors of the National Band Association and the Minnesota Band Directors Association. Mahr remains active as a guest conductor and clinician, in demand across the nation as well as Norway and Canada. He has been in residence as a guest composer/conductor on over twenty-five college and university campuses. He is also the principal conductor of the Minnesota Symphonic Winds.

Timothy Mahr is well known as a composer and has over 50 works to his credit, many of which are for band and are published. The first recipient of a commission from the American Bandmasters Association Commissioning Project, Mahr continues to be commissioned by universities, colleges, high schools, state bandmaster associations and community groups nationally. Recent commissions include works for the Music Educators National Conference, the United States Air Force Band and the Kappa Kappa Psi/Tau Beta Sigma National Intercollegiate Band. He received the 1991 ABA/Ostwald Award for his work, The Soaring Hawk. Dr. Mahr was elected to membership in the American Bandmasters Association in 1993.

MARGUERITE WILDER

Mrs. Wilder is widely recognized as a conductor and clinician, having conducted Honor Bands throughout the United States, Canada, England, Italy, Turkey and Australia. Serving as a resource person for in-service sessions, she works with both local and regional school systems and universities. Her clinics on Motivational Techniques for the Beginning Band are often featured at state and national conventions. This year she presented clinics for the Georgia, Arizona, Texas, Pennsylvania, California and Minnesota State Conventions. During the summer, Mrs. Wilder serves as a conductor/clinician for the Bands of America Concert Band Camp and the University of Nebraska Middle School Band Camp and Clinic.

Mrs. Wilder was a director of the Lovett Middle School Band, Woodward Academy Band and Recorder programs and taught at Tapp Middle School for 11 years. While serving as middle school director she assisted with both the lower and upper school band programs in each school system. Mrs. Wilder is a contributing editor for the books: Do It! Play Recorder and Do It! Play Clarinet (etc) Band Method by James Froseth; GIA Publications, Inc. She is a writer for Teaching Music Through Performance in Band, Vol. 4; GIA Pub., Inc.

Marguerite is a graduate of the University of Georgia and Georgia State University. Professional organization affiliations include MENC, GMEA, NBA, and Phi Beta Mu.

The following people need to be thanked on behalf of CBA and ASTA for helping to make this convention happen:

Mike Alcorn for taking care of this year's golf tournament.

Jack Yonce, W. L. Whaley and Wayne Manzanares for arranging the judges clinics.

Our exhibits chair, Ken Anderson, for arranging our exhibitors.

Our featured speakers, Dr. Timothy Mahr, Elliot Del Borgo, Gary Markham and Marguerite Wilder. We sincerely appreciate you coming to Colorado to highlight our convention.

A very special thanks to Ken Anderson of Flesher Hinton Music, Max Wagner of Kolacny Music and Eric Brandhorst of Music and Arts for giving of their time to help sponsor our speakers and of thier help and support at this year's convention. We couldn't do it without you!

GIA Publications, Inc. for Marguerite Wilder.

To Chatfield High School for loaning the percussion equipment and music stands for the convention.

The Sheraton Denver West and thier Staff for a great place to have a convention.

A big thanks to Darryl Bostwick for all of his help and support!!!
