Highlights

The convention is moved from Vail to Gunnison (Western State College) and is also moved from May to August.. School performances were no longer possible with the summer venue.

- The 101st Guard Band performed a concert, did a sight reading session and were used in a jazz clinic with Bob Montgomery.
- First year for a solo competition for high school seniors. Contest winner Marianne Canuel of Gunnison performed her contest winning clarinet solo at the convention.
- The annual CBA golf and tennis tournaments are reinstated for the first time since the convention left the Denver area in 1980.
- Jim Fay (author/lecturer), Bob Montgomery (jazz artist/educator), Barbara Belton (motivational speaker "Burnout and Breakthroughs") and John Shaw (The Sousa Project) were clinicians at the conference.
